The Bard

Definition: a musician, storyteller or poet. Lover of history and the arts.

New to the Village? Visiting Revel Grove for 5 hours or less? Feeling overwhelmed by choice? Here are suggestions of shows that a bard may enjoy.

September 5th, 6th & 7th:

SHOWS : Check the program schedule for exact times and locations.

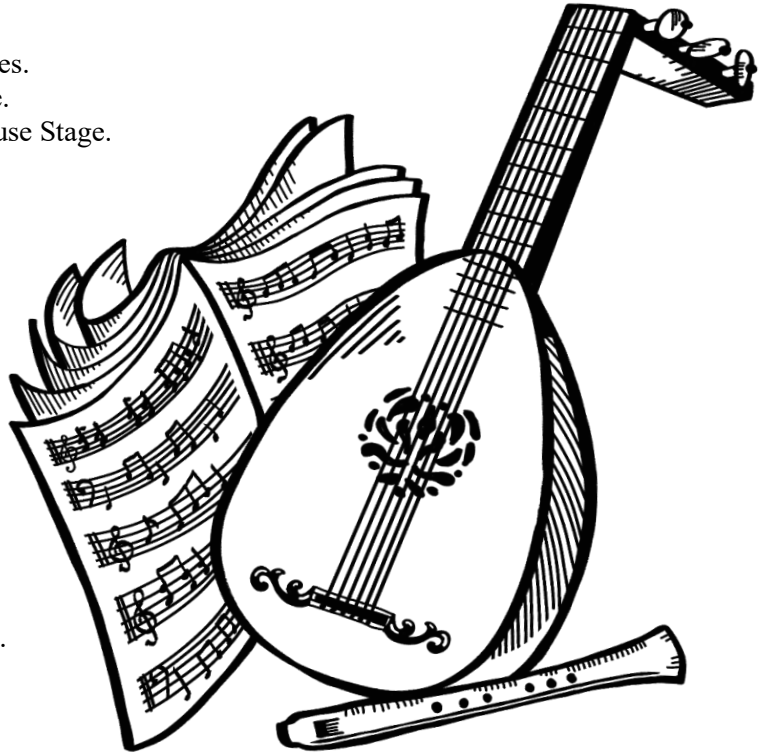
*A-Per-Se: 11am at the Globe: Revel Grove Madrigals & Dancers.
*Music at the White Hart & Boars Head Tavern includes Celtic, folks, Irish, and pirate tunes.
*Music at the Cottage Stage: Intimate performances featuring folk, Celtic and Renaissance.
*The Fortress Dwellers are special guests this weekend. At Boar's Head Tavern & Gatehouse Stage.
*Jammer's Ceilidh at Gatehouse Stage at 3:45pm. Music and dance.
*Is the play your thing? Check out one of these One-Act plays at the Globe:
12pm: The Seduced Countess by Moliere; 12:30pm: The Three Musketeers
2:30pm: Shakespeare's Pyramus & Thisbe (from A Midsummer Night's Dream)
*Perhaps some comedy and swordplay with NoBeard & Gwendolyn at Lyric Stage.
*Enjoy great physical comedy by Fools Named "O" and LaLa! at Lyric Stage.
*Like the Bard of Avon? Not sure, but like comedy? Try Shakespeare's Skum two parody shows daily at the Globe. 1:30pm: Antony & Cleopatra; 3pm: Hamlet.
*Stop by Reveler's Bower (near the Globe) and chat with our living history performers who are demonstrating spinning, leatherworking, and other crafts. And don't miss A Klasse Akte's fun historical shows on beer, ale & food.
*Check out juggler Paolo Garbanzo at Royal Fox Theatre – great juggler and lover of role-playing games.
*Enjoy the songs and fun of Bardy Pardy at Gatehouse stage & Boars Head Tavern.
*Enjoy telling a tall tale? Get involved in our Village Court at 4:15pm at Gatehouse Stage. Bring a case to the Justice of the Peace or sit back and witness the fun!
*Check out Sir Richard Mondes Stories In Songs set at 4:30pm at Cottage Stage.
*Join in our Danse Macabre at 5:15pm. Line up near Climbing Wall on boardwalk.
Here late? Those looking for PG-13 fun might want to visit with Daisy O'Danny, Swipe Right? At Gatehouse Stage. Or perhaps finish your day at Pub Sing at the White Hart Tavern at 5:45pm
Or mabe you'd like to dance with Piper Jones at Boars Head at 6:15pm.



THE BARD'S PUB: White Hart Tavern.
At 11:30am all Bards are welcome to a short and informal meet and mingle with old friends and new Bards at the White Hart Tavern. Festival Ambassadors Sir Richard Mondes, Beck Marshall, Follentine Hilles, and Anne Bracegirdle will be on hand to say hello, take a picture, share suggestions on shows to see, and raise a glass to friendship! Meet at the White Hart near Manny the Stag statue. (Will be cancelled if raining)

GAMES: (additional cost) There are many games of skill around the village. Bards might enjoy: Archery (near Dragon's Lair), Skittles near the White Hart.
CRAFTS*: Peruse the map in our festival program to discover a wide array of crafts and gift items for any Bard's journey: clothing, musical instruments, books, jewelry and more!
