The Knight Definition: A warrior, abides by a code of chivalry, a champion, likes action,adventure and variety shows!

New to the village? Visiting Revel Grove for 5 hours or less? Feeling overwhelmed by choice? Here are suggestions of shows that a knight may enjoy.

September 5th, 6th, 7th:

SHOWS: Check the program schedule for exact times and locations.

*11am at the Joust field: Militia Mayhem. History and demonstration of weapons.
*The Jousts, of course: at 12pm, 3pm & 6pm. Seats fill quickly, arrive early!
*Vixens-En-Garde. Three woman show featuring swordplay, audience involvement, with a little Shakespeare. At the Market Stage.
*Piper Jones Band at Market Stage. Pipes and drums!
*The Company of Women presents a scene from The Three Musketeers at 12:30pm at the Globe Theatre.
*Visit the birds at the mews near Dragon's Liar, and see a Knightwings Birds of Prey show at Blackfriars or the Joust Arena.
*Music at the White Hart and Boars Head Tavern. Lots of rousing folk and celtic tunes.
*Militia Weapons Demos and Swords of Shakespeare at the Grounds for Defense.
*Dash Rippington's Dangerously Stupid show, twice daily at Lyric Stage (-PG)
*Bad Idea Variety show at Gatehouse Stage. Review poor life choices!
*Special guest this weekend: Broon, comedy variety skills show at Blackfriars.
*Boom Boom Shake presents music and belly dancing at Blackfriars.
*Heart & Hazard present a show filled with sideshow tricks and fun. (if you aren't squeamish)
*3:15pm at the Lyric Stage it's Captain NoBeard's Pirate Escape. Can he get out of a straitjacket?
*Visit the Militia tent near the Joust field and talk weapons and more!
*Here late? Finish your day at Pub Sing at the White Hart Tavern at 5:45pm or perhaps you'd like to dance with Piper Jones at Boars Head at 6:15pm.

THE KNIGHT'S PUB : The Dragon Inn.

At 11:45am all knights are welcome to a short and informal meet and mingle with old friends and new fellow knights at the Dragon Inn. Our Festival Ambassadors, including Lottie and Gregory Grimm, will be on hand to say hello, take a picture, share suggestions on shows to see, and raise a glass to friendship! Meet on the bar level, closer to the seating area as not to impede the beer line. (Will be cancelled if it is raining.)

GAMES : (additional cost) There are many games of skill and luck around the village. Knights might enjoy: Archery or the Cannon game near Dragon's Lair, and axe throw near the Grounds for Defense.

CRAFTS : Peruse the map in our festival program to discover a wide array of crafts including wooden mugs, clothing, weapons, chainmail and more!
